- 1 I disagree with the statement that ~~no~~ nobody will buy printed newspapers or books in the future while digital reading is becoming more popular, physical books and newspapers still have unique ~~benef~~ benefits.
- 2 First, many people ~~refer~~ prefer printed books because they ~~po~~ prefer printed books because they provide a better reading experience. For example, reading a physical book reduces eye strain compared to screens.
 - Studies show that people retain information better when ~~re~~ reading from paper rather than digital devices.
- 3 Second, not everything online is free. Many newspapers and books require subscriptions or payments to access full content. For instance, major newspapers like ~~e~~ The New York Times or The ~~not~~ Wall Street Journal charge for online ~~articles~~ articles. Similarly, ~~many~~ many e-books are not free, and people may still prefer buying a printed copy for their collection.

In conclusion, while digital reading is convenient, printed books and newspapers will not disappear completely. ~~Many~~ Many people will continue to buy them for a better reading experience and because not everything is freely available online nowadays.

1. reading fiction can be ~~also~~ just enjoyable as ~~water~~ watching movies

2. a teacher's salary should reflect their student's achievement.

3. ~~dance~~ dancing plays a crucial role in enriching cultural traditions. 丰富的

4. peers ~~of~~ often have a stronger impact on a child's academic success than their parents

5. fiction can also provide valuable lessons and insights, not just real events.
